

EGCP STATEMENT OF FAITH

We, the members of the Emporia/Greenville County Chaplaincy, believe the following statements of our faith:

We believe that the Holy Bible was written by men divinely inspired. 2 Timothy 3:16-17
All Scripture is God-breathed and is useful for teaching, rebuking, correcting and training in righteousness, so that the servant of God may be thoroughly equipped for every good work.

We believe in Jesus Christ as the Son, Manifested in the flesh, Redeemer and Lord and head of the church; that there is one God, eternally existent in three persons; Father, Son, and Holy Spirit.

We believe in the Holy Spirit, God ever-present, for guidance, comfort, and strength.

We believe in the forgiveness of sins by God's Grace, upon confession in repentance and faith.

We believe in the reconciliation, Galatians 6:1

Brethren, if a man be overtaken in a fault, ye which are spiritual, restore such an one in the spirit of meekness; considering thyself, lest thou also be tempted.

We believe in the fellowship of believers in Christ, established for the purpose of worship, ministry, and proclamation.

We believe in the Kingdom of God as God's sovereign rule in the life of man, in the brotherhood of man under the Fatherhood of God, in the final triumph of righteousness, and in the resurrection, and life everlasting
